Cookies

Our website uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website, to help us provide you with a good experience when you browse our website and also allows us to improve our site.

A cookie is a small text file that is stored on your computer or device when you visit a website, and helps to analyse web traffic (cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive). Cookies allow web applications to respond to you as an individual. The web application can tailor its operations to your needs, likes and dislikes by gathering and remembering information about your preferences.

We use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps us analyse data about webpage traffic and improve our website in order to tailor it to customer needs. We only use this information for statistical analysis purposes and we do not collect personal information.

We also use strictly necessary cookies. These cookies are required for the operation of our website. They include, for example, cookies that enable you to log into secure areas of our website and use a shopping cart.

Overall, cookies help us provide you with a better website by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not. You can control cookies by activating the setting on your browser that allows you to refuse the setting of all or some cookies. However, if you use your browser settings to block all cookies, you may not be able to access all or parts of our website.
